

Please do not dilute or change the Indiana law protecting citizens from unwanted phone calls. It has been a godsend in protecting my time as a single parent, with so little time at home the last thing I need to do is get a phone call from someone who doesn't require my time or attention. Believe me, I have plenty of other things to do! Get those people out of my life and make them stay out!